

JODI K. MILKS, CCIM

Executive Vice President

SCOPE OF SERVICE EXPERIENCE

Jodi Milks joined NAI Wisinski of West Michigan's Kalamazoo commercial real estate brokerage team in 2020 as Vice President of Brokerage Services. She was previously a commercial broker at Bradley Company for 7 years and Colliers International for 8 years in Kalamazoo.

Jodi has maintained a well-rounded portfolio of commercial real estate clients throughout the West Michigan region. She utilizes the networks she has established throughout her career as a commercial lender and commercial real estate broker to effectively match landlords/owners with tenants/buyers. Jodi's clients benefit from her ability to generate innovative solutions, creating value in all types of properties.

CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

“Jodi, I was told you were the best in town at what you do, and I can confirm that that is indeed the case. You have all the skills we needed to get this done -- vision, common sense, persistence, attention to detail, resourcefulness, and deep technical skills both in real estate financing and banking. You encouraged and kept spirits high when you needed to, and you also brought urgency when needed.”

- James Di Loreto

ANIMAL RESCUE PROJECT

“We were honored to work with Jodi Milks to create this relationship with this top-ranked, third-party logistics service provider. Jodi’s long-term knowledge of our industrial real estate markets and strategic relationships help create a win-win relationship for our both companies and our entire community. She knows, lives, and breathes the Southwest Michigan market with a diverse background in banking, finance, property management and brokerage with NAI Wisinski.”

- Jamie Clark

CLARK LOGIC

“We would like to extend our sincere appreciation to Paul Oosterbaan and Jodi Milks for their exceptional service in the sale of one of our commercial properties. From beginning to end, Paul and Jodi ensured a seamless and efficient process, all while delivering a highly personalized experience. We are confident in their expertise and will be relying on them for all future property transactions!”
